OUTFITTING CUSTOMERS FOR 180 YEARS

Woolrich is the oldest continuously operating woolen mill in the United States. Traditional fabrics were used to create more than a few American classics there: the Buffalo check wool shirt, cotton flannel shirt and wool hunt coat – all of which are still popular today. Their styles are long-lasting and feel exceptional no matter what's on the agenda. Woolrich embraces the authentic outdoor lifestyle and invites you to do the same.

Champion

EVERYDAY ADVENTURERS

and sports professionals alike have trusted Champion for nearly 100 years. Founded on a history of outdoor activities and unpredictable weather, they offer durable, functional apparel. Champion got its start and operated for 70 years in Rochester, N.Y. – a stone's throw from the Scandia Woods region. The iconic logo, the reverse weave (which eliminates horizontal shrinkage) and the beloved hoodie are hallmarks of the brand. Ranked in 2016 as best men's athletic brand by popular online news and opinion resources, the Champion name is no coincidence.
